

Biographical Sketches:

Rebecca Lowe, Au.D. CCC-A, is a clinical assistant professor and Co-Clinic Director of the University of Mississippi Speech and Hearing Center. She specializes in interventional audiology, educational audiology, and audiologic (re)habilitation. She teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in audiology, audiologic rehabilitation, and sign language. She also supervises graduate students in the clinic. She serves her profession in leadership capacities on the local, regional, and state level.

Kimberly Ward, Au.D., CCC-A is an Assistant Professor and Audiologist at The University of Southern Mississippi. Currently, she teaches graduate courses within the Au.D. program, serves pediatric clients within the clinic ranging from diagnostic services to cochlear implant programming services, and also provides educational audiology support to the school systems across the state. Kim serves on local, state, and national boards for both service and professional organizations.